Containing the freſheſt Advices, both Foreign and Domeſtic.

BOSTON, MAY 11.

WE are informed, that a fine addition has been lately made to the noble Library of Harvard-College, by Thomas Palmer, Eſq; a young Gentleman who lately received his education in that Univerſity, and has ſince made the tour of France and Italy. It conſiſts of an "Account of the Pictures, Statues, &c. found among the ruins of Herculaneum." This work was publiſhed a few years ſince, by order and at the expence of the King of Naples; and has been with eagerneſs ſought after by the moſt reſpectable literary Societies in Europe; but was not to be procured without great difficulty. The ancient city of Herculaneum ſtood at the foot of Mount Veſuvius, and was deſtroyed by an eruption of that Vulcano 1700 years ago; ſuppoſed to be the ſame as that in which Pliny the natural Hiſtorian periſhed. Being buried at a great depth, it remained unknown till about 50 years ago. Since the diſcovery, the ſearch in it for antiquities has been carried on by the government at an immenſe expence; and a vaſt number of ſtatues, and inſtruments of various kinds brought to light; and, what is more extraordinary, pictures, the colours of which are as freſh as if but newly painted.----Of all theſe curious remains of antiquity, which fill fourteen large apartments, there are elegant engravings in the work now mentioned, accompanied with particular explanations, and illuſtrated with learned notes.----Mr. Palmer ſent at the ſame time, a complete ſet of the views, ſections and elevations of all the remaining Roman Grandeur, and of the moſt magnificent modern ſtructures, now ſeen in and about the city of Rome. This work is ſaid by Connoiſſeurs to be executed with an elegance and exactneſs to ſatisfy the moſt curious obſerver. The whole donation conſiſts of twenty large volumes in folio. It was accompanied with a fine painting of the laſt eruption of Veſuvius, in 1767.

Extract of a letter from a gentleman in London, received by one of the laſt ſhips.

"It will be the criſis of war, in which America muſt vindicate her violated rights. It has been my earneſt wiſh that ſhe might be prepared for that favourable moment. For this purpoſe the eſtabliſhing a correſpondence among the ſure and able friends of freedom in the different colonies might be effectual. By this means you might preconcert the proper meaſures ſo as to be prepared: You know what efficacy UNION has already given to your meaſures. In the event of a war, to harmonize in refuſing ſupplies or any other co-operation neceſſary, this country would not fail to ſecure to you any Bill of Rights you could demand."

Extract of a letter from a gentleman of public character in London, dated 16th March.

"It is conjectured that the drawback upon Tea, will not be continued after the 5th of July next."

From the above, we may expect, that the act, laying a duty on Tea in the colonies, will be repealed the preſent ſeſſion of Parliament.

MAY 14. It ſeems as if the exerciſe of every article of our rights in every corner of the empire, is to be diſputed on every occaſion of ſuch exerciſe.

The right of inſtructing our Repreſentatives has not been conteſted here, but the inexpediency of it largely inſiſted upon. A language as near to that of the Court, as difference of meredian would admit, has been adopted, and we were told in expreſs terms, though not from the greateſt authority, that inſtructions would be diſagreeable to our Repreſentatives. However we are confident were they requeſted, they would each in particular declare their real ſenſe pretty much in the terms of Mr. Alderman Oliver; who ſaid, "that he regarded the Livery as his Maſters, whom it was his duty to oblige, which he ſhould ever do, though their opinions ſometimes might not coincide with his own."

A gentleman arrived in Captain Hall from London, relates, that he was very lately in Scotland, and in many of the principal cities there, that he was much ſurpriſed to hear the people in public companies cenſure the preſent Adminiſtration, for taxing the Americans without their conſent, and for attempting to have the Commiſſioners of the Cuſtoms exempted from contributing to the ſupport of Government, &c. with the utmoſt freedom. It is not at all incredible that the Miniſtry are put to their trumps if even Scotland begins to deteſt them.

MAY 25.

At the adjournment of the meeting of the Freeholders and other Inhabitants of this town, on Wedneſday laſt, the Committee appointed to prepare inſtructions to the Repreſentatives, reported the following draft; which being read and conſidered, was unanimouſly accepted, and is now publiſhed by order of the town.

To the Honourable THOMAS CUSHING, Eſq; Mr. SAMUEL ADAMS, the Honourable JOHN HANCOCK, Eſq; and WILLIAM PHILLIPS, Eſq.

GENTLEMEN,

THE choice we have made of you to repreſent us in the aſſembly of the commons of this province, at the enſuing ſeſſions of the general court, is the ſtrongeſt teſtimony of the high opinion which we entertain of your integrity and abilities---Nevertheleſs we think it our duty at ſuch a time as this, when the very being of our conſtitution is ſo dangerouſly attacked, to expreſs to you, whom we have deputed, and empowered to act for us, the ſenſe we have of the oppreſſions which we ſuffer. No people were ever in circumſtances more truly alarming than thoſe in which the people of this province now are. An exterior power claims a right to govern us, and have for a number of years been levying an illegal tax on us; whereby we are degraded from the rank of free ſubjects, to the deſpicable condition of ſlaves. For it is evident to the meaneſt underſtanding, that Great-Britain can have no right to take our money from us, without our conſent, unleſs we are her ſlaves; unleſs our bodies, our perſons are her property, ſhe ſurely cannot have the leaſt claim to diſpoſe of our earnings; and though we have hitherto failed of ſucceſs in our applications for the redreſs of this cruel grievance, we are ſtill determined to exert our utmoſt efforts to break up this baneful ſource of deſpotiſm and miſery. The attention of every one who has the leaſt affection to his country, muſt be awakened to this important ſubject, when he ſees the long train of evils which flow from it. We are eſpecially under the moſt uneaſy apprehenſions from the repeated refuſals of our Governor to accept of an honourable ſupport from the people; and we have the higheſt reaſon to believe that a part of the very money unjuſtly taken from us, is applied to ſupport him in a ſtate of independance upon the people over whom he preſides. If this is the caſe, our ſituation is truly deplorable. The ſame oppreſſions of which we ſo juſtly complain, are made the ſupport of the man, who ought to exert his utmoſt power to obtain a redreſs of our grievances. A ruler independant of the people over whom he preſides, is abhorrent to the principles of a free government---Power without a check is tyranny: Whoever is poſſeſſed of ſuch a power, is a Maſter, inſtead of a Governor; and whoever ſubmits to ſuch a power, is a ſlave inſtead of a ſubject. The intention and only reaſonable end of government, is the happineſs of mankind; and every branch of a legal government ought to be intereſted in the public welfare, and ſhould have every poſſible inducement to ſtudy and promote the happineſs of the governed: But we fear that the intereſt of this people, and of the Gentleman who preſides over us, are made as diſtinct and even as oppoſite as they poſſibly can be; and if we allow ourſelves to form a judgment from what has taken place ſince his Excellency's acceſſion to the chair, our fears muſt be augmented, and confirmed, as the adminiſtration of affairs has been altogether ſuch, as muſt neceſſarily have reſulted, from an oppoſition of intereſt, and the Governor's entire independency on us. We ſhall mention to you a few ſtriking inſtances of the juſtice of this remark. We think it impoſſible that our Governor ſhould be at liberty to conſult, like the Father of this people, their true intereſt, whilſt he conſiders himſelf bound to obey inſtructions ſent to him from the other ſide of the Atlantic: For altho' he may know that doing any particular act would be beneficial to the people, and conducive to his Majeſty's ſervice, yet if he is inſtructed to the contrary, it muſt not be done. But if he is inſtructed to do an act which he knows will be injurious to the people, and detrimental to his Majeſty's ſervice, yet according to this new ſyſtem he muſt do it-----Every conſideration of the fitneſs and reaſonableneſs of the tranſaction is thrown aſide; and whatever may be the conſequence to King or People, the Governor muſt exerciſe the power committed to him, not agreeable to his diſcretion, and the apparent intereſt of the province, but according to the inſtructions received from a Miniſter three thouſand miles diſtance----Inſtructions are urged in excuſe for almoſt every thing of which we complain. By an inſtruction, our legiſlative body are reſtrained from meeting at their ancient eſtabliſhed ſeat, contrary to their inclination ſo repeatedly declared to the Governor. By an inſtruction, our Fortreſs Caſtle William, built and for a long time ſupported by the province for its defence, has been delivered to troops, over whom the Captain General of the province has declared he has no controul; and who to appearance, have taken more care to make it formidable to this town, than to a foreign enemy.---Under the influence of an inſtruction, the Governor has refuſed his conſent to a tax bill, for defraying the neceſſary charges of government, becauſe ſuch perſons as the Britiſh Miniſter was pleaſed to point out, were not expreſsly exempted from bearing their due proportion of ſaid tax. And what ſeems to complete our misfortune is, that an inſtruction is pleaded for refuſing a grant for the payment of our agents at the Court of Great-Britain. Thus we are to be cut off, even from complaint, that laſt reſource of the wretched.

His Excellency is inſtructed not to ſign any grant for the payment of an agent, unleſs he is choſen by the three branches of the legiſlature. He cannot conſent to the choice of any one who is preſcribed in his inſtructions. It is againſt an adminiſtration in which Lord Hillſborough and his dependants are principal actors, that we complain; but no one whom he diſapproves muſt be allowed to manage our complaints. It is difficult to reſtrain our indignation at the groſs affront offered to our underſtandings in this affair. A capacity but little remote from idiotiſm, is ſufficient to diſcover the fatal conſequences of this miniſterial plot.

The town have in times paſt declared to their repreſentatives, their ſenſe of the burthen laid upon the commercial intereſt of the community, by the extenſion of the powers of the court of admiralty. A juriſdiction, in its very nature, repugnant to our conſtitution, and contrary to Magna Charta, as it inveſts one Judge, appointed by the Crown, with authority to determine concerns the moſt important to the property and liberty of the ſubject.----And they expreſs'd their ſenſe of this grievance, as ſharpened by the contraſt which appears in the ſame ſtatute, between the mother country and the colonies.-----For however it may be urged, that the court of admiralty is eſtabliſhed by the charter of this province, yet by the ſame charter the people of this province are entitled to all the liberties, privileges and immunities of free Britiſh ſubjects.---And to ſee the Britiſh Parliament, by one, and the ſame ſtatute, taking from the colonies, an important right, namely, TRIALS BY JURIES, and ſecuring that right to themſelves, in caſes of the ſame nature and importance, muſt be deeply affecting to us. We take this opportunity of renewing our proteſtation againſt the powers of that Court, which have already proved ſo vexatious to perſons concerned in trade; and in a very recent inſtance, according to the beſt informations we are able to obtain, have been made uſe of to diſturb and harraſs the induſtrious Farmer, and which, if not reſtrained, bid fair to render all property, either real or perſonal, to the laſt degree precarious.

Thus gentlemen have we exhibited to you a view of many of the grievances which diſtreſs this people. And we expect that you will uſe your utmoſt influence, in the enſuing Seſſions of the General Court, to have them radically redreſſed; not doubting but you will receive the moſt ready and effectual aſſiſtance, from thoſe wiſe patriots who are, or ſhall be choſen to repreſent our brethren in the ſeveral towns of this faithful province.-----In particular, we deſire, that you will uſe your influence that a remonſtrance be preſented to his Majeſty, (whoſe elevated ſtation denominates him the father of his people, and the tenure of whoſe Throne is the protection of his ſubjects) againſt the oppreſſions which we ſuffer: Laying open to his view, in the fulleſt and plaineſt manner, the true ſtate of this his province of the Maſſachuſetts Bay, and pleading with him, with that freedom and firmneſs which the juſtice of the cauſe, and the exigencies of your country demand. And that you may not fail of reaching the Royal Ear, we inſtruct you to exert yourſelves to procure a proper grant from the Houſe of Repreſentatives for the payment of the Agents who have ſerved the honourable his Majeſty's Council, and the honourable Houſe of Repreſentatives for ſome years paſt; and that you take timely care to know whether the ſame is concurred with, and conſented to by the other two branches of the Legiſlature. And if it is not, that you endeavour to obtain a reſolve of the Houſe for a brief, for raiſing a ſum ſufficient for defraying the charges of an Agency for the year enſuing, that ſo we may at leaſt in this way, make uſe of our own money to purchaſe an acceſs to the Ear of our King.

There are, gentlemen, many other matters of great importance to the province, which will come before you; and we are happy that we can with confidence commit our concerns to you---hoping that by the favour of divine providence, you will be greatly inſtrumental in reſtoring, and ſecuring both to us and our poſterity, our violated rights. Then only may we with reaſon expect to enjoy the invaluable bleſſings of harmony and good government.

Atteſt. WILLIAM COOPER, Town Clerk.

Captain Champin Samſon from Jamaica, informs, that when he was off Cape Florida, about the ſixth of May inſtant, he ſpoke with a ſhip that had taken up a whale boat with ſix men, which were part of a crew of a whaling ſloop, commanded by one Captain Bernard, of Nantucket, which was taken by a brig under Spaniſh colours, off the Matanzies, five leagues diſtance; the brig gave the crew their boats, and carried off the ſloop: Captain Samſon was informed that they had 130 barrels of oil.

In our laſt we informed the public of a valuable preſent lately made by Thomas Palmer, Eſq; to Harvard College: Our readers will be pleaſed to be informed, that laſt week another fine preſent was made to that ſeminary of learning by the Honourable John Hancock, Eſq. This gentleman, who ſome time ago ſignalized his bounty to it, by preſenting to the library ſo great a number of the beſt authors as completely filled one of the alcoves, has now covered the floors of the library, the apparatus and philoſophy chambers with moſt elegant carpets, and the walls of the latter with a rich paper. Theſe coverings are ſuitable to the valuable treaſures there depoſited, and will not only ſerve to decorate thoſe beautiful apartments, but will conduce to the preſervation of the books and philoſophical inſtruments, which were in great danger of being injured by the duſt unavoidably raiſed in rooms ſo much frequented.----By the munificence of benefactors, theſe apartments are probably made to exceed any of the kind in America.

At the meeting of the freeholders and other inhabitants laſt Wedneſday, the Honourable John Hancock, Eſq; preſented the town with a new and finely conſtructed Engine for the extinguiſhing fire, which was accepted as a freſh mark of his regards to its ſafety and welfare, and the thanks of the town unanimouſly returned him.

Arrived here ſince our laſt, the Deal Caſtle man of war from New-York.

The Arethuſa, from Virginia.

The Bonetta ſloop of war from South-Carolina, and the Mercury from the ſame place.

MAY 28. Upwards of 100 ſhips have already ſailed for Newfoundland, which is ſooner than has been known for many years paſt.

It appears by the papers, brought by Captain Hooper, that the high price of proviſions in England occaſions great diſtreſs among the poor inhabitants: But that calamity ſeems, by ſome accounts, to be owing rather to an artificial than natural ſcarcity, ariſing from the ſame principle of deteſted avarice, in monopolizing the neceſſaries of life, in the ſubjects of this ſame righteous government, called Britiſh, which occaſioned the late deplorable famine in Aſia, where millions of our fellow-creatures ended their days in ſuch a manner as muſt have excited commiſeration in every obdurate animal but the unfeeling miſer.---A London paper, of the beginning of laſt month, ſpeaking of the late famine in Aſia, ſays, "The hoarders of rice raiſed fortunes, and two millions of people died of famine.----It is believed that the monopolizers made juſt five ſhillings ſterling a head of the ſlain"!!-----How uniform in the adminiſtration of juſtice does government appear! puniſhing with death a poor perſon who ſteals two or three ſhillings ſterling, and at the ſame time protecting the villains who, by with-holding ſuſtenance from their brethren, murder millions!!

Beef is now, (ſays a London paper above-mentioned) from 5d. to 7d. per pound; mutton and pork from 5d. half-penny to 7d. veal from 6d. to 9d. bread 8d. farthing the quartern loaf; coals 4l. 4s. the chaldron.

NEW-YORK, MAY 25.

Tueſday, May 19, (being the day appointed for the annual Commencement of the Graduates of KING'S COLLEGE in this city) a numerous and reſpectable audience, honoured by the preſence of his Excellency Governor TRYON, and General GAGE, aſſembled at Trinity Church.

After prayers, and an elegant Latin Oration by the Reverend CHARLES INGLIS, A. M. Præs. P. T. the Salutatory Oration was delivered with great propriety of pronunciation, and graceſulneſs of geſture, by Mr. OGDEN.

The audience was next agreeably entertained with a judicious Compariſon of ancient and modern Learning, and an accurate eſtimate of the peculiar excellencies of each, by Mr. BOWDEN; whoſe elegant compoſition and animated delivery, did him much honour.

Mr. SKENE, next, diſcovered much brilliancy of fancy and refined taſte, in an Engliſh Oration on the Beauties of Poetry, pronounced with ſpirit, and recommended by the accuracy of his geſture.

A Forenſic Diſpute then ſucceeded. Mr. WINTERTON ſupported the character of an Empiric, with much ſpirit and humour; and Mr. MURRAY, in his reply, pointed out, in a ſtriking light, the ſuperior advantages of a regular application to the ſtudy of phyſic, and rallied the pretenſions of Empiriciſm with much wit and pleaſantry.

Mr. KING, next, gained much applauſe, by an animated Latin Oration, On the Love of Glory.

The bold hypotheſis of preſumptuous Philoſophers, and the ridiculous conſequences of confidence and dogmatiſm, in the different literary profeſſions, were placed in a ſtriking light, by Mr. ROEBUCK, in an humorous, ironical panegyric on the happy effects of Preſumption and Aſſurance; which, joined with the propriety of his delivery, occaſioned much mirth, and met with the higheſt applauſe from the audience.

The degree of A. B. was then conferred on Meſſrs. Ogden, Skene, Bowden, Barclay, King and Roebuck. The following gentlemen, who gave ſingular marks of their improvement in medical knowledge, at their public examination, were graduated Batchelors in Phyſic: James Murray, Charles Dingley, A. M. William Winterton, John Auguſtus Graham, Uzal Johnſon, Richard Udall.

Colonel EDMOND FANNING, Eſq; of Yale College and of Cambridge, New-England, was admitted ad eundem.

The exerciſes of the day were then concluded with a very ſenſible Valedictory Oration on Sociability, by Mr. BARCLAY; whoſe judicious obſervations, and modeſt addreſs, gained him univerſal approbation. The attention paid by the audience, and the ſatisfaction they expreſſed during the courſe of the exerciſes, did much honour to themſelves and the Speakers; and muſt give pleaſure to every lover of literature, and every true patriot, who wiſhes to ſee the ſciences diſſeminated and widely flouriſhing in this happy country.

JUNE 2. Captain Hunt, in 12 days from Bermuda, informs us, that about ſix weeks ſince, the brig Little Molly, Captain Williamſon, from Virginia for Antigua, was caſt away on the rocks near that place, and that both veſſel and cargo were loſt, but the crew ſaved; and that much about the ſame time, the brig Liberty, Captain Cload, from Teneriffe for Maryland, run on the ſame rocks, but got off again, with the loſs of her rudder, and ſome other trifling damage; ſhe was obliged to be unloaded, before ſhe could proceed on her voyage.

By the Captains Dobbs and Wynkoop, from Coracoa, we learn, that about five weeks ago, eight Dutch trading ſloops were taken on the Spaniſh Main, by the Guarda Coſtas, and a ſchooner ſunk, and every ſoul on board periſhed; and that two ſtout ſloops of 12 guns and 100 men each, were ſailed from Coracoa in queſt of the Spaniards, and were determined to take ſatisfaction where ever they met them.

JUNE 5. We hear from Ducheſs County, that Dr. William Hooker Smith, is in the goal of that county for paſſing two counterfeit £.5 New-York money bills of the late emiſſion.

We hear alſo from Fairfield, that falſe dollars of 1760, have been lately diſcovered paſſing there.

His Majeſty has been pleaſed to appoint Thomas Browne, Eſq; a Captain in the 26th regiment of foot.

On Tueſday laſt, the 21ſt regiment, or Royal North Britiſh Fuzileers, under the command of Major Sutherland, was reviewed near this city, by his Excellency General Gage, his Excellency William Tryon, Eſq; our Governor, being preſent, and a great number of the principal gentlemen of this place. The exerciſe was continued for ſeveral hours, and exhibited a great variety of manœuvres and modes of attack, defence, advance and retreat, &c. with firings and movements ſuitable to every occaſion in actual ſervice; all which were performed with ſurpriſing dexterity and exactneſs, to the great delight of every ſpectator, but cannot be deſcribed, with juſtneſs and propriety, by a perſon not maſter of the ſubject.---The notice of every one was particularly attracted by corporal George Boſs, (called the Fugalman) who ſtood at a diſtance, a little to the right, and gave the motions, which he made with inconceivable vivacity and graceſulneſs.

PHILADELPHIA, MAY 28.

Yeſterday ſe'nnight the Reverend Synod of New-York and Philadelphia met in the Second Preſbyterian Church, in this city, where a ſermon, ſuitable to the occaſion, was preached by the Reverend Alexander M'Whorter, of New-Ark, New-Jerſey. Afterwards the Reverend Joſeph Treat, of New-York, was choſen Moderator.

JUNE 4. On Thurſday evening laſt the Reverend Synod, having finiſhed their buſineſs, broke up.

On Tueſday laſt we had here a moſt ſurpriſing change of weather, ſo that the Mercury of a thermometer, which hung in an open entry, and ſtood at 85 degrees at two o'clock, P. M. at nine o'clock in the evening, was fallen to 61 degrees.

JUNE 8. The Baptiſt church in this city having ſome time ſince unanimouſly choſen the Rev. William Rogers, A. B. for their miniſter, upon the reſignation of the Rev. Mr. Edwards, he was, on Sunday the 31ſt ult. in the preſence of a numerous and attentive audience, ſolemnly ordained to that office. A Sermon, ſuitable to the occaſion, from 2d Corinthians ii, 16, was preached by the Rev. Iſaac Eaton, A. M. of Hopewell; the Rev. Samuel Jones, A. M. of Pennypack, delivered the charge; and the Rev. John Gano, of New-York, gave the right-hand of fellowſhip.

Extract of a letter from Trichenopoly, in the Eaſt-Indies, dated June 19, 1771.

"I am at preſent with the General, who, I imagine, will ſoon take the field.---Preparations for war are again making.---You can have no idea, but from the real hiſtories of India, of the numerous independent powers here; 200,000 is but a ſmall black army."

SAVANNAH, (Georgia) JUNE 17.

We are well aſſured that commiſſions are now ordered for a Captain and two Lieutenants to command a company of grenadiers in the firſt regiment of militia, commanded by Colonel Philip Delegall.

Laſt week was married in St. John's pariſh, Parmenas Way, Eſq; to Mrs. Quarterman, widow of the late Mr. John Quarterman.

At the laſt Seſſions, twenty bills of indictment were delivered to the Grand Jury, twelve of which were found to be true bills, and eight thrown out. Daniel Wolicon was tried and found guilty of breaking goal at Auguſta, was fined twenty-five pounds, and bound over for two years. Hugh Kennedy was tried for perjury, and acquitted. There were alſo ſeveral trials for aſſaults.

Yeſterday ſailed from Tybee, for England, the ſhip Union, Captain Coombes, in which went paſſenger Nathaniel Hall, Eſquire.

Extract of a Letter from London, dated April 1.

"Governor Wright has had a ſevere attack lately; an inflammation upon his liver was his diſeaſe, and we were once in great fear of a mortification. He is now, thank God, in a recovering way, but his earneſtneſs for the good of Georgia, will not allow him to take that reſpite from buſineſs, which the ſtate of his health requires. The firſt day we thought him out of danger, he dictated a letter to Lord Hillſborough, that there might be no delay in the determination of the Cherokee land buſineſs."

LONDON, APRIL 11.

THE Bill brought into the Houſe of Commons, for the further relief of his Majeſty's Proteſtant Subjects, diſſenting from the Church of England, diſpenſes, we are told, with that part of the act made in the firſt year of William and Mary, which requires ſubſcription to ſundry articles, mentioned in the Statute made in the thirteenth year of Elizabeth. The only qualifications required in this bill from diſſenting Miniſters, are that they ſhall take the cuſtomary oaths of allegiance, ſubſcribe the declaration againſt popery, and alſo a profeſſion that they believe the Scriptures of the Old and New-Teſtament to contain the Mind and Will of God, and that they receive them as the Rule of Faith and Practice. Juſtices of the Peace will be appointed to adminiſter the declaration and to keep a regiſter, wherein are to be inſerted the names of thoſe Miniſters, who offer to take ſuch oaths and ſubſcribe ſuch declarations. It will further ſpecify, in contradiction to one part of the "Act for the uniformity of public prayers;" That Miniſters diſabled from preaching any Sermon or Lecture by the act of Charles the Second, ſhall, upon taking the oaths, and ſubſcribing the delaration, be exempted from the penalty of impriſonment, and be duly qualified to preach, expound or exhort. In order to prevent perſons from fraudulently qualifying themſelves as diſſenting Miniſters, this bill will enact, that every perſon offering to qualify himſelf as a diſſenting Miniſter at the General Seſſion of the Peace, ſhall produce to the Juſtices a Teſtimonial, ſigned by ſome Proteſtant diſſenting Miniſters, purporting that the perſon ſo offering himſelf is a man of a good Moral and Chriſtian Character, and that they are willing to receive him as a diſſenting Miniſter. The ſame qualification will entitle a man to teach or inſtruct youth in the capacity of a public Tutor or Schoolmaſter, and exempt him from every penalty, to which, by any Law or Statute whatever, he may be ſubjected. Theſe, we are informed, are the heads of this lenient and ſalutary Bill; and ſhould it paſs, we ſincerely hope that the removing every obſtacle, which may affect tender conſciences, all ſtriſe and contentions may ceaſe amongſt us, and nothing but mutual Forbearance, Toleration, and Chriſtian Good-will prevail.

APRIL 14. We learn from Verſailles, that Madam de Barré will ſoon be divorced by an arret of Parliament from her preſent huſband, who, on this occaſion is to be gratified with an eſtate, called Rouqueloure, which has been lately purchaſed for him at the expence of five hundred thouſand livres.

Captain Francis Samuel Drake is appointed to the command of his Majeſty's ſhip the Torbay, of ſeventy four guns, at Plymouth, in the room of Captain Wallis.

APRIL 17. It is thought the Court of Peterſburgh are meditating a blow that will ſhortly aſtoniſh all Europe; no leſs, it is ſaid, than the ſiege and reduction of Conſtantinople itſelf; which enterpriſe, vaſt as it may appear, will be found leſs difficult, eſpecially if we reflect how greatly the Turkiſh ſtrength is impaired and divided by inteſtine diviſions and civil wars. Certain it is, ſuch an univerſal panick prevails in the Divan, as enfeebles their reſolutions, and perplexes their councils.

A rumour prevails in many knowing places about town, that the Grand Seignior has for ſome time had a promiſe, which he can rely upon, from ſome power, which is not yet made public, of joining him this ſummer, which is the only reaſon of his backwardneſs in coming to an accommodation with the Ruſſians. In all probability, by next Chriſtmas, all Europe will be involved in a war.

APRIL 18. The face of affairs in Denmark is greatly clearing up reſpecting the reigning Queen. Since the arrival of the laſt meſſenger on Tueſday, their Majeſties have, for the firſt time, ſpoke of the ſtate of things at Copenhagen before the principal people in waiting, and in ſuch a manner, as if the clouds would be ſucceeded by a ſpeedy ſun-ſhine, and a clear ſerene ſky.

It is now ſaid, that the King of Denmark has given his ſubjects to underſtand that a true and full ſtate of the late convulſions there ſhall be publiſhed by June next, till which time the puniſhment of thoſe found guilty is ſuſpended.

The Nabobs have formed a league together. They meet every night; they have ſubſcribed a million of money, to intimidate and corrupt. But nothing will do; the ſpirit of the nation is rouſed, and condign puniſhment will at length overtake the guilty.

It is not known whether any political buſineſs between the Courts of London and Peterſburgh, relative to the war with the Porte, was the occaſion of the frequent interviews at Rome between the Duke of Glouceſter and Count Orlow the Ruſſian general; but it is certain their meetings were frequent, and often private, and that alſo their reſpective ſecretaries were engaged by his Royal Highneſs and the General in a long epiſtolary intercourſe.

Notwithſtanding France has long ſince oſtenſibly abandoned the family of the Pretender, it is aſſerted, that the late marriage of the Chevalier de St. George is the fabrication of the French court; the purpoſes of its originating there will ſhew themſelves in a few months, as ſoon as ſome matters can be previouſly ſettled with the court of Madrid.

The Ruſſians, extremely jealous of having his Pruſſian Majeſty their neighbour, have ſignified in form, that they cannot ſit down as idle ſpectators, ſhould he make any attempts for the appropriation of Dantzick and Royal Pruſſia. A war in the eaſt of Germany is likely to proceed from the enſuing ſummer.

The haughtineſs of the Turkiſh Emperor has got the better of the neceſſities of his affairs. Having repented of the powers with which he inveſted his miniſter to the Ruſſian General, an expreſs arrived at Jaſſy, before the preliminaries were actually ſigned; ſo that another campaign is inevitable. The greateſt preparations poſſible are making on both ſides.

APRIL 22. The proceedings of the Committee of Enquiry into the affairs of the Eaſt-India Company, appear to juſtify the ſincerity of its declared purpoſes. The plan adopted for conducting the buſineſs, and the papers called for, muſt render it impoſſible for art or power to conceal truth. Lord Clive and his friend Mr. Strachey ſeem to have been choſen of the Committee upon a principle of fairneſs, to give his Lordſhip the fulleſt opportunity of defending himſelf; it is already evident he has no weight of influence to obſtruct enquiry. The ideas upon which this motion was opened to the houſe by Col. Burgoyne on the 13th inſtant have been ſo imperfectly ſtated in the papers, that any of thoſe perſons, of which it is known there were many, who took down that gentleman's ſpeech, would do an acceptable ſervice to the public to print it; they at the ſame time would do an act of juſtice to a moſt able parliamentary performance.

On Thurſday laſt in the Houſe of Commons was made the report of the Select Committee for Eaſt-India affairs. Sir George Saville (who was one) informed the Houſe, that he wiſhed to decline being of that committee; that it was a ſort of rule, that a member being againſt the whole of a bill, ought not to be on the committee on ſuch a bill; that he therefore being againſt the whole ſyſtem of India affairs, ought not to be on that committee. He looked upon their trade as deſtructive, either from bringing in too great an increaſe of money, which would overturn the liberty of this country, or from many of the importations, tea eſpecially, being deſtructive of the healths of the people of England. He alſo proteſted againſt the territorial acquiſitions as public robberies, in the name of the kingdom: that in abetting, in any ſort, this kind of tranſaction, he ſhould look on himſelf as an accomplice; he therefore hoped the Houſe would not think he meant any diſreſpect in not attending the committee.

Yeſterday Lord Mansfield was at the Queen's palace for near two hours, and when his Lordſhip departed, an expreſs was immediately ſent to Lord North in the country.

We are credibly informed, that the intention of ſending a fleet to the Baltic, is poſtponed on account of ſome favourable advices received from that kingdom, and that the ſtocks roſe yeſterday very conſiderably on the occaſion.

Both Houſes of Parliament will riſe for the ſummer on Thurſday the 21ſt of May.

HISTORICAL ANECDOTES of the private Lives of his MAJESTY and his amiable QUEEN.

SOON after our gracious Monarch, George the Third, aſcended the throne, he became deſirous of ſecuring to his ſubjects the bleſſing of a Proteſtant ſucceſſion.

When the nuptial knot was tied, Queen Charlotte, far from being elated at her exaltation, ſhewed by her extreme affability and condeſcenſion of mind, infinitely ſuperior even to royalty, an engaging behaviour, which endeared her to all ranks of people, whilſt her innocent and virtuous diſpoſition gained ſo much upon the affections of her Royal Conſort, that he became enamoured to an exceſs of fondneſs; and each revolving day increaſed his happineſs as it increaſed his years.

As the German Ladies are generally prolific, her Majeſty has produced a numerous brood of fondlings. Unlike in moſt things to our faſhionable dames, her Majeſty ſcorns to leave the management of her offspring to an unfeeling nurſe, or a prattling giddy waiting woman. The Queen watches over her helpleſs innocents, and with all the ſoft ſolicitude of maternal tenderneſs, guides their infant ſteps with a mother's ſoſtering hand. Her Majeſty is truly ſenſible, that as ſhe cannot tranſfer her ſeelings, ſo neither can ſhe her anxiety for her children's welfare to another; and that ſhe abhors the opinion too univerſally received amongſt the Ladies, "that attending upon infants is a ſervile drudgery."

It would be needleſs to recapitulate every minute occurrence, as we mean not to write an hiſtory of our Sovereign's life, but only to ſketch out his excellencies, for others to copy after ſo truly illuſtrious an example. As our readers may be ſolicitous to attend our Monarch into his moſt private receſſes, we have endeavoured to procure every information which we thought might gratify their curioſity.

In winter his Majeſty uſually riſes betwixt ſix and ſeven, and retires to his devotion in a private apartment, where he continues near an hour. In ſummer his Majeſty ſeldom lies longer than ſix. After breakfaſt his Majeſty dreſſes, and attends the public buſineſs, if any. Afterwards, he has his children brought to him, and then retires to his ſtudy to proſecute ſome new ingenious diſcovery, or attend to the converſation of ſome man of ſcience and knowledge.

The Queen generally ſpends the forenoon with her little ones; and, as ſhe is to the laſt degree ingenious, ſhe is generally employed about drawing, or moſt curious kinds of needle work, the latter of which is her favourite amuſement.

The King is remarkably temperate, ſeldom indulging himſelf in more than four glaſſes of wine at dinner, and a little wine and water at ſupper. The afternoon, if no ſtate affairs require conſultation, his Majeſty ſpends in reading ſome favourite author to the Queen, who has given the beſt proof that ſhe thoroughly underſtands our language, by conceiving the greateſt attachment to Shakeſpeare's moſt eſteemed plays.

As his Majeſty was taught to ſpeak with all the graces of oratory, by the celebrated Quin, perſons who have acceſs to his Royal preſence declare, that the King reads and ſpeaks more like a profeſſor of eloquence than a Monarch, who might be ſuppoſed ſomewhat ſoftened with the luxury of a Court.

After ſupper his Majeſty and the Queen join in private devotions, and peruſing each ſome moral or religious author, they retire early to reſt.

Such is the life, ſuch the diſpoſition of our amiable Sovereign. His Court is not filled with "Bacchus and noiſy revellers." It is not an eaſtern Seraglio. It is the reſidence of virtue, ſcience, and religion. He is the father of a well governed family, the fond, the affectionate huſband of the moſt meritorious Lady in the Britiſh dominions. Their days are ſpent in ſocial comfort, and each riſing morn they experience "high flavoured joy proceeding from heart felt delight."

It is not poſſible to view this happy pair without becoming converts to Hymen, and praiſing the conubial ſtate in the language of Milton:

Hail, wedded love! myſterious law! true ſource
Of human offſpring; ſole propriety
In Paradiſe! of all things common elſe, &c.
